Dear Editor

I am absolutely sure we can benefit from Harry and Meghan's fashionable campaigning from afar and thus have no need to imprison them in Yarralumla for five years ("Why Prince Harry would be a top GG", 23 April p25).

I doubt Harry would make it onto the shortlist for Governor-General anyway although there is nothing to stop him from being recommended if the Queen leaned on one of our loyally monarchist Prime Ministers such as Tony Abbott or Scott Morrison.

Another good reason not to vote for the Liberals.*
